

Chris Beckett

General Manager

Over the last 20 years Chris has been involved in Ski Resort Management all over Canada. Most recently as the General Manager of Marble Mountain in his home province of Newfoundland. Other previous roles include: Operations Manager - Retail/Rental Business Units with Whistler/Blackcomb, various Management positions with Grouse Mountain Resorts Ltd and Red Mountain Resorts, Rossland, B.C. Chris has a diploma in Ski Resort Operations and Management from Selkirk College and has served as President of the Atlantic Ski Areas Association and VP of Western Destination Management Organization. He holds various Canadian Ski Association Levels - in both ski and snowboard disciplines.

Chris and his wife, Tanya, along with their three children, Mackenzie, Sydney and Chloe, have settled in Thornbury and look forward to taking advantage of all the area has to offer.