

Lindsay Young

Freestyle & Snowboard Manager

Lindsay has been on a snowboard for the better part of her life and has had opportunities to teach, coach and mentor all over Canada and Internationally. Landing back in Ontario in 2002 with National competitive experience in snowboard cross and halfpipe, Lindsay was asked to create and coach a snowboardcross team for the Provincial Snowboard Association. This role quickly evolved to become the High Performance Director for the Province, a Project 2010 coach for Canada Snowboard, and a member of the Technical Committee for both the Snowboard Long Term Athlete Development model (LTAD) and the Canadian Snowboard Coaching program (CSCP).

In 2008 Lindsay, with her husband Chris and daughter Brooke settled in Meaford. Lindsay continues to learn and grow in all things snow sliding. Currently she holds her level 3 Snowboard Instructor and level 2 evaluator as well as her Level 3 snowboard coach and is the Master Learning Facilitator for Ontario for the Canadian snowboard Coaching Program. Most recently, Lindsay achieved her level 1 Ski instructor certificate.

Lindsay and her family enjoy an active outdoor lifestyle all year round biking, paddling, horseback riding and working on their farm.
