

Maggie Kennedy

Alpine Program Administrator

Maggie was introduced to the Peaks through family friends before her family joined the Club in 1999. She attended Brock University for Sport Management and upon graduating moved to Thornbury in 2006. Although she only planned to stay the summer, she has since settled in the area. She worked in the Member and Guest Services Office as well as the Alpine Office before moving into her current position of Alpine Program Administrator.